"SWEET TOOTH" BANDIT ROBS FILLING STATION

A robber, who forced his way into the Lee Brookshire filling station on the east Washington street road, early Tuesday, left evidence that he had a "sweet tooth." According to the police, the bandit took five pounds of candy and about a dozen packages of peanuts. No cigarettes or cigars were missed by Mr. Brook-shire.

The robber, to gain entrance into the service station, made a hole in the glass in the front door and then reached through and unlocked it.
The robbery took place after 3 a. m. as officers had checked the station a short time before and everything was in order then.

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES

Lottie Morrison vs. Elmer C. Bash, executor of the will of Wm. T. Bash, deceased, is the title of an unusual suit for damages filed in the Montgomery Circuit Court and brought to the Putnam Circuit Court on a change of venue. Mrs. Morrison claims that on December 30, 1939, the defendant and his employees carelessly permitted bean hay to fall from a vehicle they were operating upon a road, two miles north of Ladoga, and that the bunches of the hay were so thick that the claimant's car was thereby wrecked, she being unable to see the hay in the dim light of evening. She claims permanent and serious injuries, especially to her spine, and asks $5,000 compensation. Harding and Harding are attorneys for the plaintiff.

In a separate suit, Gilbert Morris-son, husband of Lottie, also asks $5,000 compensation for expenses incurred in the accident and for the loss of his wife's services against the same defendant, this suit also having been filed in the Montgomery county court and brought to the Putnam court, with the same attorneys.

Home Economics department of Belle Union High School, assisted by the teachers and classes of Belle Union High School. There were also many friends who were invited and enjoyed the fine affair. Next year the

OLD SANTA'S WORKMEN AT FIRE STATION PUT ON FINISHING TOUCHES

POST HAS LARGE SUPPLY
A Merry Christmas Is Assured Youngsters As Result of Splendid Campaign Response

With Christmas only eight days away, Santa's workmen at the local Fire Department are putting the finishing touches on the hundreds of toys collected for the annual Toy Campaign sponsored by Post No. 58 of The American Legion.

When interviewed this morning by a Banner reporter Paul Grimes, chairman of the Legion Toy Committee said, "We have the largest and best selection of toys and games we have ever collected. The quality of the presents donated to the Legion this year has been far above the average of those given in years past.
The boys at the Fire Department and their helpers have again done a splendid job of repairing and refinishing the toys and everything is set for one of the best Toy Campaigns we have had. However, the work is only half done. Our big problem is to get the word to the needy that we are in a position and anxious to help them. Anyone wishing to, receive this help is urged to get in touch with some member of the American Legion or leave their name and address at the Fire Department. The "orders" will be made up into boxes and will be ready for the parents to pick up at the Legion Club house on Tuesday, December 24th.

As in years past the members of the S. C. C. Club and Tri Kappa and Associate Chapter of Tri Kappa will donate a total of more than 100 dolls to this campaign. Each member of the above organizations has purchased a doll and completely outfitted it with attractive dresses, hats, suits, coats and other bits of wearing apparel. These fine presents are now on display in the lobby of the First Citizens Bank and Trust Company.
In addition to the new dolls given by S. C. C. and Tri Kappa, the Home Economics department of the high school has been busy making clothes for the dolls donated through the boxes placed in the ward schools throughout the city.

Mercury Hovered At 30 ABOVE LAST NIGHT

The threat, last evening, of the coming of much colder weather caused a mild rush of automobile drivers to have another quart or two of some form of cold-resisting fluid added to that already in the radiators of their cars. The drivers were fearful of a drop in the temperature, portended by the cold wind from the southwest, which had been blowing strongly all afternoon.

However, the lowest point recorded by thermometers during the night was 30 degrees above zero, reached at 1 o'clock this morning, and at daylight a slow rising of the marker in the temperature gauges set in, with 31 registered at 8 o'clock.

Colder today was the weather man's opinion of the day's developments in the weather.

BLAST WRECKS TWO BUILDINGS IN CINCINNATI

AT LEAST 11 PERSONS TRAP-PED IN DEBRIS AFTER EX-PLOSION

BLAST CAUSED BY GAS

Rescue Workers Dig Into Ruins
Seeking Possible Survivors; Blast
In Marketing District

CINCINNATI, O., Dec. 17 (UP)— At least eight persons were killed in an explosion that wrecked two three-story buildings housing stores and apartments in the downtown Cincinnati market district early today. Four bodies have been recovered from the debris as result of the blast, believed caused by gas, which occurred at 3:25 a. m.

Two of the bodies were identified as Dora Smith, 9, and Joseph P.
Koebe, 33, proprietor of an appliance shop. The two other bodies were a boy about 9, and a girl about the same age, both unidentified.

At least 11 persons were trapped and eight others saved early today when a terrific explosion, believed to be from gas, turned two adjoining three-story brick buildings into shambles.

Police said that an "act of God" protected one family of five from being struck by falling joists and all of them, taken to a hospital, appeared uninjured except for shock.

Bystanders at the scene where firemen, policemen and volunteers dug frantically for the trapped victims described the wrecked building "as just like London after a bomb hit a house."

Patrolmen Tom Kaufman and Louis Koehnke were patrolling beats within two blocks of the building when they heard a "woof" and "mush" sound about 3:30 a. m.

They thought it was a safe explosion but when they looked up the street they saw a big "dust cloud."

They hurried toward the scene and met a man who said:

"My God, there's been an explosion.
Call the fire department!"

Police Chief Eugene Weatherly said there was "no doubt" a gas explosion caused the wreck.

The buildings were believed to have housed six families. Persons in the neighborhood believed that eight people had been rescued. Survivors in General hospital said there were about 20 persons living in the apartments.

Diggers removed debris in the front section which was levelled to the ground, seeking four persons believed buried beneath. Elsewhere, a child and an elderly person were heard moaning.

A tunnel was made under a doorway into the cellar at rear of the buildings to try to reach one man caught in the cellerway. He was uncovered to his waist but his legs were pinned under him in such a way that he could not be pulled out.
He was unconscious and the fire department inhalator squad worked on him and rescuers dug.

Superintendent Tony Sauer of the city workhouse, about a mile distance, heard a report of the explosion on the radio and immediately collected 20 prisoners and brought them to the scene to aid in the rescue work.

A big pall of smoke covered the scene.

The two three-story brick buildings had dry goods and ladies furnishing stores downstairs. It was near a neighborhood marketing district.

IT HAPPENED IN INDIANA

Just Another Dream

Over $80,000 will be spent in improving the Wabash river before the opening of spring navigation. The improvement will be made only as far north as Terre Haute, and it is intended to have a regular packet line running between that city and points south on the river as early as April 1899. A government snag boat will enter the river on Nov. 20, and an order will be issued at once to the different railroad companies to put draws on their bridges where none are now built. There are 21 railroad and wagon bridges that cross the river between Terre Haute and its mouth. Some have been built with draws and some have not. The bridges without draws are so low that a small boat cannot pass under them during high water. Farmers find it an easy matter to raise from 75 to 100 bushels of corn to the acre. It is estimated 10,000,000 of grain are annually raised along this river. Most of the corn at the present is shipped by rail. When the boats began to play the historic old stream once again they will get their share of business. There is plenty of lumber along the river but tow boats at present find it dangerous to venture far up the stream. (Sullivan Democrat—Nov. 11, 1898.)

Crowe, a member of the House Merchant Marine committee, has just returned from an inspection of the canal area. He disclosed that the Canal locks are being housed in shields which "no bomb can dent" and that the hills dominating the waterway are alive with heavily camouflaged anti-aircraft nests to ward off mass air attacks.

He said the vastly increased strength of both the army and navy establishments there lends "reasonable assurance" against the possibility of invasion or capture.

PING-PONG TOURNAMENT

Don Swank of near Ladoga, a freshman at Wabash college won the ping pong championship of Montgomery and Putnam counties in a series of matches at Roachdale Saturday morning. Runner-up in the tournament was Eugene Gordon of Putnam county.

Sherman Smith, area project supervisor for the WPA, arranged the championship play, which was conducted at the recreation center in Roachdale. Twelve boys, under the age of 21, competed for each county, with team honors going to Putnam county after a series of interesting contests in which leading players from the two counties participated.

In team play the Putnam county group scored 18 points.

Continuation of the tournament play was indicated by Mr. Smith, who said girls teams probably would be organized in the two counties. If the girls teams are formed play will be conducted on the same basis as in the boys division.

 Bainbridge on Saturday evening, the to 27. The local team, winners in most of their contests, were unable half.

Mars, high point man in many of the Greencastle team's games, was high with 11 points while F. Michaels and R. Michaels were high for the Wildcats with eleven points per man, the former sinking five field goals and a free throw and the latter making four field goals and three free throws.

The White team will engage the Plainfield Independents, in Plainfield, at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon for their next try at turning their luck back to the victory column.

DEPAUW CHAPEL

Dr. L. R. Eckhardt, head of the DePauw department of philosophy, spoke at chapel Tuesday morning on "The Challenge of Christmas." The challenge of Christmas to each of us, Dr. Eckhardt said, was to "explore afresh the nature of re-demptive love," and "to believe again that love is omnipotent, that it will overthrow all tyrannies and emancipate all men."

"Christmas must challenge us to a continuing faith one in the other and to a thinking well of one another," he said. We must believe in man's power "through the grace of redemptive love to work out toward God's purpose," he told the chapel audience.

 er and all the other little girls and

ATHENIANS READY TO CLASH WITH TIGER CUBS

(Crawfordsville Journal) Holding their longest winning streak of the season, Crawfordsville's Athenians meet the Greencastle Tiger Cubs at the local high school gymnasium tonight.

The Tiger Cubs have been very much "on" recently and because of the ever-present rivalry between the two schools it seems safe to predict a close battle for the evening.

Crawfordsville has polished off South Side of Fort Wayne and Lebanon the last times out while the Chester Elson cagers after a dreary start of three straight setbacks have turned in consecutive victories over Bloomington, Connersville, Short-ridge and Greensburg.

There will be plenty of tickets available for tonight's game although the winning ways of the Tiger Cubs have attracted much interest among Greencastle fans and a good-sized delegation is expected to follow the team here.

The preliminary between the second-stringers will get under way at 6:45 p. m. with the varsity bout at 8 p. m.

Bloomington is the only team both Crawfordsville and Greencastle have played this season. The Tiger Cubs beat the Panthers, 44 to 22, and in their next contest the Panthers took the Athenians, 41 to 33. Both teams have improved since then, however.
 Danville, Martinsville and Shelby-ville bested the Tiger Cubs before they got going.

The Athenians now have a .500 average for the season, having won three of six games played.

Because recent years have pitted the Athenians and Tiger Cubs against each other in regional tourney play they have become hot rivals. Last year the locals won, 31 to 24.

IN MEMORY

In loving remembrance of loved husband Newton J. who passed away two years day, Dec. 17, 1938.

The face I loved is now laid His loving voice is still.
The hand so often clasped in Lies now in death's cold clasp I often sit and think of him When I am all alone;
For memory is the only thing That grief can call its own.
Sadly missed by his wife Jeffries.
